League Ball Field Permit Applications to Be Accepted Feb. 3-17

PITTSBURGH — The Allegheny County Parks Department will accept applications for ball field permits from organized baseball, soccer and softball leagues from Wed., Feb. 3, through Wed., Feb. 17. Applications are available at park offices and online at www.alleghenycounty.us/parks/forms.aspx.

Applications must be filed in person by a league representative at the park office where the requested fields are located. A certificate of insurance is required with the application, and all required fees for ball field permits must be paid in full when the permits are issued. Acceptance of an application does not guarantee that permits will be issued for the dates requested.

Individuals interested in scheduling picnic games may choose from the remaining dates beginning Mon., March 2.

For more information, call the Allegheny County Parks Department at 412-350-7275.
