Kudos: Don Clark

Don Clark, deputy director of the Office of Intellectual Disability (OID), was selected as one of two recipients of the County Commissioners Association of Pennsylvania (CCAP) Affiliate Award. Don was selected for his "superior efforts in creating new options for counties to work collaboratively with the commonwealth in developing an improved county-based management structure for community intellectual disability services." He received the award on August 5 at the 2018 CCAP Annual Conference in Adams County.
