

Kudos: William Battles, James Caldwell, and Lindsey Hern (March 2018 One Good Apple Award recipients)

William Battles, James Caldwell, and Lindsey Hern were selected as the March 2018 DHS One Good Apple Award winners.

- Will, educational liaison in the East Regional Office (ERO), is recognized for going above and beyond in working with teens and young adults. He is thoughtful and solution-focused in his interactions. Will builds strong relationships with teens and young adults who continue to look to Will for guidance and support post-CYF involvement.
- James, DARE applications specialist, is recognized for his patience and responsiveness to the needs of staff. James is the specialist for the Common Assessment Tool and provided superior support when working with Family Support Center staff. James is also a Fellows graduate and Resource Fellow.
- Lindsey, caseworker in the Mon Valley Regional Office (MVRO), is recognized as a MVRO leader. She utilizes support staff to ensure that the needs of the families she serves are met. Lindsey organized a team building day at the MVRO, and serves as part of the Systems Of Care (SOC) engagement and teaming workgroup.

The One Good Apple Award recognizes DHS and Great Lakes Behavioral Research Institute employees who have exhibited exemplary work, directly or indirectly, in the field of child welfare. Any DHS or Great Lakes employee may submit a nomination for the award, and recipients are recognized quarterly. Additional information on the award is available on the DHS Intranet under Staff Resources.
