

THE STATE OF
Human Services
IN ALLEGHENY COUNTY

DHS invites you to attend a virtual presentation about the state of Human Services in Allegheny County.

DHS Director, Erin Dalton, will present the department's current priorities and the strategies underway to address them, including:

Increasing access to human services to ensure that people are getting the right help when they need it.

Increasing investment in prevention strategies to help families avoid coercive systems such as child welfare, juvenile justice and criminal justice.

Increasing investments in strategies that promote economic security.

Supporting Allegheny County residents in times of crisis.

This virtual presentation is being offered at two different times via Zoom. The content for both presentations is the same.

Wednesday, July 27th from 11:30am - 1pm on Zoom
