Health Department Announces Penalties Against U.S. Steel

PITTSBURGH – The Allegheny County Health Department (ACHD) issued $361,400 worth of stipulated penalties against U.S. Steel for Article XXI Air Pollution Control violations and permit violations that occurred at the Clairton Coke Works during the fourth quarter of 2019 and the first quarter of 2020.

Pursuant to the Department's agreement that was reached with U.S. Steel in June of 2019, ninety percent (90%) of penalties ($325,260) will be paid to the Community Benefit Trust for impacted communities while the remaining 10% ($36,140) will be paid to the Clean Air Fund.
