Fitzgerald Statement on Memorial Day Lifting of Mitigation Measures

PITTSBURGH – County Executive Rich Fitzgerald issued the following statement in response to the Wolf administration’s announcement that it will lift mitigation orders on Memorial Day, and the masking order once 70% of Pennsylvania adults are fully vaccinated:

“Today’s announcement by the governor is good news for this state and county. I applaud Governor Wolf and his team for all of their efforts that have allowed us to get to this point. Pennsylvania has now reached 80.5% of distributed vaccines that have been administered.

“As we continue to get vaccinations into arms, we are nearing 70% of our adult population in this county having at least one shot. To know we can go back to normal after Memorial Day is great news.”
