Allegheny County – On January 20, 2020, Shaler Township Police responded to 108 Dolores Drive for a report of a missing person. The department initiated a missing person investigation into 70-year-old Janet Walsh. On January 28, 2020, the Allegheny County Police joined in the investigation.

Investigators learned that Janet Walsh, the missing woman, invited her daughter to her house for dinner that evening. Walsh also had a scheduled therapist appointment in the early afternoon which she cancelled. At approximately 5:00 p.m., Walsh's daughter arrived at the residence on Dolores Drive and noticed that Walsh's vehicle was not there. Walsh's cell phone was discovered upstairs in the residence. Walsh's daughter contacted friends of the woman in an attempt to locate her. After waiting a few hours, Walsh's daughter contacted the Shaler Police Department to file a missing person report.

Janet Ann Walsh is described as a 70-year-old white female who is heavy set with short, curly blonde hair. Her vehicle, which is also missing, is a 2018 silver Chevrolet Trax with Pennsylvania license plate KTW 6007.

The Shaler Township and the Allegheny County Police departments are requesting assistance from the public in locating Janet Walsh or her vehicle. Investigators are asking anyone with information, or having seen Walsh or her vehicle, to contact the Allegheny County Police Tip Line at 1-833-ALL-TIPS (1-833-255-8477); callers can remain anonymous.
