REMINDER: Part of Pierson Run Road in Plum to Close Tomorrow

PITTSBURGH – The Department of Public Works announced that Pierson Run Road from Saltsburg Road (Route 380) to Center Hill Road in Plum Borough will close between 6 a.m. and 6 p.m. on Tuesday, September 28, 2021. The closure, which is required for work around manholes in the center of the road, is part of an ongoing project that began on August 23, 2021. The project includes base repairs, milling and paving, drainage and shoulder improvements, and replacement of guide rail and pavement markings.

During the closure, traffic will be detoured using Saltsburg Road (Route 380), Center Road, and Trestle Road.

After the road reopens, there still will be periodic single-lane closures on Pierson Run Road between Old Frankstown Road and Saltsburg Road (Route 380) between 6 a.m. and 6 p.m. on weekdays until the project ends in November 2021. Drivers can expect to experience short stoppages in work zones, and flaggers will be used to control traffic.

The project is being done by A. Folino Construction, Inc., of Oakmont as part of the $3.9 million 2021 Capital Roads contract.
