

IPRB Complaint Form

This form is made available for individuals to submit allegations of misconduct against an Allegheny County Police officer. The Independent Police Review Board has several options available to them upon receipt of your complaint, including referral, preliminary inquiry, formal investigation, fact-finding hearing, and a final disposition. The more information and detail you are able to provide, the more that the board has to work with in responding to your complaint.

At this time, the board only has jurisdiction to look into allegations against county police officers. Complaints regarding officers in other departments will be referred to those officials accordingly.

All complaints must be in writing and the truth thereof shall be verified by the person submitting the complaint under penalty of law.

A few items to know before you begin:

1. Any item with an asterisk (*) is required.
2. The board cannot accept an anonymous complaint.
3. If you have materials that you would like to provide with the complaint, but cannot include them with this form, please email IPRB@alleghenycounty.us for directions on how to submit.

Filing Out the IPRB Complaint Form

On the first page, information including name and address is requested for the person filing the complaint. If you are filing the complaint on behalf of someone else, that information is provided further on in the form.

Information regarding the incident should be as complete as possible. If you're not certain of something, provide as much detail as you can so that the board has information to act.

Demographic information is entirely optional. It can be left blank, but the board uses the information to track any biases or trends with the complaints.

Provide as much detail in your statement as possible. Use additional pages as needed.

When complete, you may send your complaint via mail to IPRB, 119 County Courthouse, 436 Grant Street, Pittsburgh, PA 15219. It may also be hand delivered to this office, or submitted via email to IPRB@alleghenycounty.us.
