

Kudos: Jim Turner

Jim Turner, mental health housing specialist in the Office of Behavioral Health (OBH), recently received a Roadrunner Honoree Award during the third annual Passion Meets the Road awards gala. The award, granted by Vision Towards Peace Counseling Services, recognizes “those who typically go unnoticed, yet whose work ethic is unwavering.” Jim was nominated for his work with PATH (Projects for Assistance in Transitioning from Homelessness) services, a state and federally funded program for persons with behavioral health issues.
