

DHS News

Newsletter of the Allegheny County
Department of Human Services

April 2019

Kudos: Marc Cherna

Marc Cherna, DHS director, was recently honored with the African American Strategic Partnership (AASP) Leadership Award. Marc was selected for the award in recognition of "his national and local leadership in addressing disproportionality among African American Families involved in the child welfare system." The award was presented at the AASP's second annual conference on April 2.