POLICY

It is the policy of the Allegheny County Bureau of Corrections (BOC) to set forth the regulations governing mail privileges for inmates of the Allegheny County Jail.

APPLICABLE POPULATIONS

All inmate population and Allegheny County Jail personnel

PROCEDURAL GUIDELINES

1. Excluding weekends, holidays or emergency situations, mail shall not be held for more than 24 hours. Packages shall not be held more than 48 hours. In the event an inmate’s mail is withheld for any reason, the inmate shall be notified in writing.
2. Correspondence shall be permitted between inmates and their families, friends, other associates and/or legitimate business contacts, attorneys, news media and public officials. The only restrictions on the amount of mail an inmate can mail out shall be those necessary to ensure the safety of the institution and other persons.
3. When the inmate bears the mailing cost, there is no limit on the volume of letters he/she can send or receive or on the length, language, content, or source of mail or publication, except when there is reasonable belief that limitation is necessary to protect public safety or maintain facility order and security.
4. All inmates must comply with the rules and regulations for mailing letters. Deliberate violations may result in disciplinary action or referral to appropriate authorities for prosecution.
5. Correspondence between inmates incarcerated in the Allegheny County Jail is prohibited. This includes all alternative housing sites including male/female rehabilitative programs or any county, state or federal facility contractually engaged to house ACJ inmates.

6. Correspondence between an inmate incarcerated in the Allegheny County Jail and an inmate or inmates at other correctional facilities must be approved by the Warden or a Deputy Warden.
7. Correspondence, or other writings, containing threatening or obscene material as well as correspondence containing criminal solicitations or intended to further a criminal plan, is prohibited.
8. The sending and receipt of mail shall be restricted or prohibited for valid reasons such as introduction of contraband, threats to security or the public or when requested by intended recipients. Inmates shall refrain from writing to persons who have stated in writing that they do not wish to receive mail from them.
9. Incoming mail with a return address indicating that it is from public officials, the courts, a judge, attorney or otherwise determined to be a piece of legal mail will not be opened for examining for contraband unless the interested inmate is present. All legal mail must come from a lawyer. Anything coming from a residential address, the inmate's home, or with a handwritten address is not considered legal mail and will be returned to sender.
10. Incoming mail shall not be read or censored unless reasonable grounds exist to believe that the receipt of the mail is likely to jeopardize the prison security or public safety and welfare or both. Such probable cause must be supported by a written report. It shall be opened and examined for contraband. Letters containing contraband shall be held for further inspection and disposition by the Allegheny County Police.
11. Money orders, checks or cash shall be recorded indicating the sender, the amount received, and the date received. The inmate shall be notified of all monies received. All money orders, checks or cash shall be forwarded to the cashier's office.
12. Outgoing mail shall not be read, censored or reproduced. Mail may be checked only if contraband is suspected or there are reasonable grounds to believe that the receipt of the mail is likely to jeopardize prison security or public safety and welfare or both.
13. Inmates shall seal and place all mail correspondence in the mail bags, when mail call is announced on each housing unit.

Handling and Distribution of Mail

1. Outgoing mail will be placed (by the inmate) in the housing unit's blue mailbag each morning after breakfast feed, Monday through Friday. Once collection is complete, a level escort Officer will deliver the mailbag to the mailroom. Mail will not be kept on the Officers desk.
2. Incoming mail shall be processed as follows:
 - Official mail and inmate mail shall be separated.
 - If an inmate has been transferred or released, the mail shall be forwarded, unopened, to the sender.
 - All remaining mail shall be opened, examined, photocopied, and the photocopies distributed to the inmate.
 - It will be the responsibility of the 6x2 and 2x10 shift Unit Manager or Assistant Unit Manager to assure that the all mail is distributed.
3. Each level will have one designated legal mail bag. The mail bags will be delivered to the Shift Commanders Office for distribution once per day at a designated time. Mail bags will include subpoenas.
4. It is the responsibility of the 6x2 and 2x10 Unit Manager or Assistant Unit Manager to pick up legal mail Monday through Friday in the Shift Commanders Office on 1M. Correctional Officers are to distribute legal mail to the pods and deliver the mail to the inmate(s). Correctional Officers are to assure that legal mail is opened only to inspect for contraband and only in the presence of the inmate. Correctional officers delivering legal mail to the inmates must ensure the inmate sign for all legal mail.
5. The Shift Commander will ensure all legal mail is distributed each day.
6. Each pod will be issued a logbook to document legal mail. Subpoenas do not have to be documented in the logbook. This logbook will include the following information.
 - Inmate Name
 - DOC #
 - Date
 - Agency/Firm that sent the mail
 - Inmate Signature
 - Officer's Signature
7. When distributing legal mail, the Correctional Officer will ensure:
 - Inmate is properly identified by looking at their armband.
 - Record the legal mail in the logbook assigned to the pod.
 - Mail is opened in front of the inmate, inspected for contraband, and give the mail to the inmate. At no time is the Correctional Officer to read an inmate's legal mail.

- If contraband is detected or legal materials appear to be contaminated with possible liquid K-2 or other unknown substance during the inspections, the mail will not be given to the inmate. The Shift Commander be notified, and reports shall be generated through the chain of command. The inmate will be advised the mail will be confiscated pending the outcome of an investigation.
- Upon completion of legal mail distribution, the mail bags will be returned to the Mailroom.
- The Shift Commander shall ensure all legal mail is distributed to the inmate population daily and ensure strict compliance with this directive.

Certified Mail

1. Determination to send mail these methods shall be the responsibility of the inmate.
2. The inmate must have funds available in his/her account for such postage payment and arrangements must be made with the Pod Officer and Cashier.
3. Inmates shall fill out a Form 125 with his or her signature and witnessed by a staff member. Processing shall be in accordance with internal institutional procedures.

Procedures for Outgoing Mail

To ensure the efficient and proper mail handling and delivery, it shall be the responsibility of the inmate to assure that:

1. All outgoing mail is addressed properly. This means the name and DOC number MUST BE PRINTED in the designated area (upper left-hand corner) on the envelope. Publications

Inmates may pay for a subscription of a periodic publication or receive a subscription paid for by a person in the community, including local newspapers. No inmate is entitled to receive any periodic publication or newspaper at the county's expense. While staff members may screen incoming mail, only the Warden or his/her designee may reject a publication.

1. The publications may be read and examined by the Warden or his/her designee. All incoming publications will be inspected for contraband prior to distribution.
2. Books must be soft-back and contain the packing slip and or receipt from the publisher. If there is no return authorization, the inmate will be responsible for return postage.
3. A publication may be prohibited from coming into the institution for the following reasons:
 - Contains information regarding the manufacturing of explosives, weapons or drugs.
 - Includes materials intended to encourage or assist in disrupting the orderly operation of the jail such as through a criminal act, work stoppage or other breach of major jail rules or a threat to the jail's security.
 - Contents that may include illegal mailing materials, in which case the item will be referred to postal authorities.
 - Material that would encourage deviant sexual behavior, sexual behavior which is criminal and/or in violation of institutional rules, detrimental to rehabilitation, including material that is considered obscene or depicting explicit sexual acts.

- Any other material found to be detrimental to the security, good order or discipline of the institution or if it is to facilitate a criminal act.
4. The Jail's Administration will advise the inmate and the publisher or other source in writing of rejected material and will provide an opportunity for response to the concerns that gave rise to the rejection. Inmate appeals will be through the established complaint procedures.
 5. Family and friends can only order online soft-covered books to be delivered from the vender to inmates at the ACJ from book vendors that ship via the United States Postal Service, UPS or FedEx.
 6. Family and friends can upload book receipts to the GovQA by visiting Visit the Support Center and select "Request Service/File Complaint.
 7. When book orders are received the SIU team will assign themselves to the ticket in GovQA. If a book(s) is received without a receipt the SIU member will return the book(s) to sender and close out the GovQA ticket with an indication that the receipt was not received and the book was returned to sender. When the book(s) is received with the receipt, SIU will match book(s) receipts to books prior to book distribution.
 8. Once SIU approved the distribution of a book(s), the Mailroom will deliver the book(s) to the Shift Commanders Office for distribution. The Escort Officers will take the book(s) to the inmate. The inmate will sign the packing slip that the book(s) were delivered. The packing slip will be returned into the Mailroom verifying the book(s) were delivered. The packing slips will be timestamped and kept for record keeping purposes.
 9. Once the signed packing slip is returned the SIU member will close out the ticket in GovQA and indicate that the book was delivered.
